

Renters Insurance

What happens if I don't have renters insurance?

If you don't have renters insurance, you risk having to pay out of pocket for damages to your personal belongings or medical expenses in case of an accident. Additionally, some landlords may require renters insurance as part of the lease agreement, and not having it could affect your ability to rent a property.

Unique solution ID: #1170

Author: Marina

Last update: 2025-02-19 19:23